COLLECTIBLES

New CAMILLUS Treasures For Your Collection!

U.S. Army D-Day Commemorative FOURTH IN THE SERIES

The first assault wave hit the Normandy beaches at 6:30 a.m. on June 6, 1944. British and American soldiers would confront a moment none would forget as their landing craft chugged toward the waiting shores.

More than two years had been put into the build-up for the Allied assault on Hitler's Fortress Europe, and when it came, it would truly become "the longest day" - D-Day.

Camillus built millions of knives for American servicemen in World War II, and our World War II Commemorative Series (begun in 1990) recalls those fighting knives and celebrates the dedication, valor and sacrifice of America's servicemen.

CAMILLUS®

In 1876 America was bursting with opportunity for any industrious person who chose to work hard. This was the intention when Adolph Kastor founded his hardware company.

By the time World War I broke out, Kastor's company had evolved into one of the world's major cutlery manufacturers, making over a million knives a year.

Today, that company, Camillus Cutlery, is America's oldest continuous knife manufacturer. And today, the grandchildren and great grandchildren of Mr. Kastor's cutlers continue to build our unmatched tradition - one knife at a time.

We're proud of Camillus Cutlery's remarkable history. We're proud of the many superb knives we've made for sportsmen, collectors and the American, British and Canadian militaries. We're proud of our hundreds of innovations. But perhaps we're most proud of what hasn't changed. Craftsmanship. Timeless style. Top-quality 100% American-made knives. And the unbeatable value that our unique depth of experience lets us deliver to our customers. And, of course, all backed by a lifetime warranty - as it should be.
